

ENVIRONMENTAL DIVER LEVEL I

Discover the Depths, Protect the Planet - Join this course to explore underwater wonders, earn your PADI Open Water certification, and take the first step to become a conservation diver.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Explore freshwater and marine conservation in our all-encompassing introductory course. Explore vital issues confronting aquatic ecosystems in the Sierra Nevada and globally while gaining essential diving skills and a profound grasp on how to safeguard our aquatic habitats.

PADI COURSE OBJECTIVES

A certified PADI instructor and PADI e-learning will provide the foundation of the following:

- Be a confident and skilled diver
- How to assemble and properly use scuba gear
- Manage your buoyancy
- Handle Common Problems
- Respectfully approach life in marine & freshwater habitats

For more information on PADI Open Water Components visit:
www.padi.com

COURSE COMPONENTS

- 5-10 hours of Online PADI E-learning
- Introduction into Environmental & Conservation Diving
- Confined Water Dives and 4 Open Water Dives with PADI Skill Development
- Field Demonstrations

LEARN TO DIVE WITH A PURPOSE!

This course is the first step to becoming a conservation diver. You will gain the foundational skills that will allow you to explore & protect aquatic environments!